Curriculum Vitae

TODD E. JAWORSKY is Managing Partner of McElroy Deutsch's Greenwood Village office in Colorado. His practice focuses primarily on the areas of insurance coverage, insurance coverage litigation, bad faith and general commercial litigation. Prior to joining McElroy Deutsch, Mr. Jaworsky was associated with a prominent San Diego, California, defense firm where he practiced extensively in the areas of insurance coverage, coverage related litigation and bad faith litigation. He is also experienced in construction litigation, real estate development and corporate entity formation.

Mr. Jaworsky is admitted to practice in California and Colorado. He is a member of the American, California and Colorado Bar Associations. In addition to California and Colorado, he has coverage analysis, claims management and litigation experience in numerous states, including Oregon, Washington, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming, Arizona, Nevada, Texas and many East Coast states.

Mr. Jaworsky received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English with honors from Fort Lewis College in 1998. A 2002 Cum Laude graduate of California Western School of Law, Mr. Jaworsky served as associate editor of the California Western Law Review and the California Western International Law Journal. While in law school, Mr. Jaworsky authored A Defendant's Right to Exculpatory Evidence: Does the Constitutional Duty to Disclose Exculpatory Evidence Extend to New Evidence Discovered Post-Conviction? 15 ST. THOMAS L.REV. 245 (2002).
